Welcome to the 2019 Colonial Classic!

This year marks the sixth year of the Colonial Classic Horse Show. Thanks to your enthusiasm, support and participation, we have seen this finals show grow from a one-day event into now a three-day event that includes hunters, jumpers and more than 400 exhibitors.

The idea behind the Colonial Classic is to give local horse show riders a venue to test their riding skills against their peers.

Everyone here understands that local horse show series are the foundation of riding in America. So many riders begin their love of riding in lesson barns and local shows. From the leadliners in jods and bows to the professionals jumping the derby style course, the Colonial Classic is designed to showcase them.

There are so many people to thank who have supported the Colonial Classic since the beginning and who continue to contribute to its ongoing success. First, please join me in acknowledging the great staff here at the Harrisburg Horse Show Complex. Everything about this facility takes the Colonial Classic to a higher level. Next, thank you to all the sponsors who support the show and contribute to making this event a success. Third, thank you to all the horse show administrators for their continued support, feedback, suggestions and encouragement. Last and certainly not least, thank you to my husband for continuing to believe in my idea.

Again, welcome and thank you for participating in this Fifth Annual Colonial Classic. I hope you make the most of this weekend's experience. I welcome any and all suggestions to make this and future Colonial Classic Horse Shows better than ever.

Sincerely,

Brooke Brown

General Information

All questions will be decided by show management whose decision shall be final. Every horse entered for competition will comply with the rules of the horse show management, but management will, in no case, be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur, and it shall be condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold this horse show and the officials and employees of the show blameless for any loss or accident to his horse, employees, equipment, which may occur from sickness, fire or otherwise. Management reserves the right to refuse, accept conditionally, or to cancel any entries, disqualify any riders or exhibitors, prohibit entries and cancel award prizes without claims for damages; to cancel or combine unfilled classes, or to reschedule classes after due notice to exhibitors; to change rings or rotate judges. Exhibitors are notified that any act of discourtesy or disobedience toward the judges or officials, on the part of the owner, manager, rider, or groom shall disqualify the horse, and the owner shall forfeit his entry fee and other fees. Show management reserves to itself the power to prohibit any person from attending or showing a horse in the ring and to remove any groom or horse from the show without being liable for compensation. All exhibitors must wear protective headgear at all times while mounted on the show grounds. All dogs must be on a leash and under owners' control.
